Luz de Tavira 2 bedroom town house

Located in the village of Luz de Tavira close to all amenities that area has to offer. This traditional Portuguese house has recently been totally renovated to a very high standard. The house comprises on the ground floor of : entry way; ample living room with wood burner; toilet room and a fully fitted and equipped kitchen (appliances have never been used) with eating area. From the kitchen there is outside space with a small pool so that on the hot days you may refresh yourself. Still in the courtyard there is a beautiful feature a well that has been covered with a very thick glass. On the first there are two bedrooms with en suite bathrooms. A very stylish house that has been refurbished and furnished very tastefully with high quality materials. A property well worth having a look. Good for a family home or for holiday lettings.
